Said resolution was then returned to the Senate.

Mr. Aydelott, from the Committee on Education, reported favorably without amendment, the Senate bill entitled, an Act to repeal section four of chapter three of the Act of 1865, chapter 160, entitled, "School House Sites," and section one of chapter one, entitled, "Sources of Income," of the Act of 1865, chapter 160, entitled, an Act to add a new article to the Code of Public General Laws, to be entitled, "Public Instruction," providing a uniform system of free Public Schools for the State of Maryland, and to repeal all existing laws inconsistent therewith, and to re-enact the same with amendments;

Which was read a second time, and,

On motion of Mr. Aydelott,

Three-fourths of all the members concurring,

Was ordered to a third reading.

Pending which, Mr. Carmichael moved that the further consideration of the bill be postponed informally, which was not concurred in.

Mr. Ford moved to refer the bill to the Committee of Ways and Means, which was not sustained.

The bill was then read a third time, and passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
